REGULAR BOARD MEETING 6:00 pm

Principal Daniels stated 44% of the high school student body participates in an extracurricular activity, most are above a 3.0 grade point average. He presented each Board Member a flower arrangement made by the Horticulture B –Floral Design class and thanked them for their service.

Principal Ludwick added they are doing a second round of registration for “STEAM Club” that runs to Spring Break and APaTT is scheduling “bingo night” January 30.

B. Financial Reports

The next steps will be re-entering July – Sept payroll to complete W-2’s; revenue and payable entry.

C. Maintenance Report

Radon testing resulted in the necessity to install radon mitigation systems in the high school drama room area and middle school staff room. It involved cutting a hole through the floor and then pvc pipe was run to a small pump having air pumped from under the foundation and vented above the roof line of the school. We have had several minor bus repairs. We have purchased “forks” to be used when delivery trucks come to deliver pallets of supplies without a lift gate.

D. Superintendent Report

-The final long range facility planning meeting is January 30th at 4:00 p.m. –reviewing a 20-year window and the needs to be included over that time period looking forward.

-Lauren Sawyer began a weight lifting club; membership is $15; there will be a contest in April at Central High School.
